

JOLAINE MERRILL

Palos Verdes Peninsula Association of REALTORS®
REALTOR® of the Year 1994, 2004 & 2007

Continuing more than 25 years as a very successful Realtor® with Coldwell Banker, Jolaine provides personal, proficient and diligent service not only to her clients but to her fellow Realtors® as well. She is a broker and holds nationally recognized designations as a GRI (Graduate Realtors® Institute), CRS (Certified Residential Specialist attained by less than 5% of agents) and SRES (Senior Real Estate Specialist providing specialized service for seniors) in addition to Coldwell Banker's prestigious International President's Circle, Previews Agent and Corporate Relocation Specialist.

Jolaine was named PVP Association of REALTORS® 2007, 2004 and 1994 REALTOR® of the Year. This honor is bestowed annually in recognition of extraordinary, continued service to the Local, State and National Association, a reputation for ethical conduct with the public and fellow members, professionalism in her real estate activities and community service. Jolaine is the local association's only three time recipient of this Award. In addition to having served three terms as President and several terms as Treasurer of the local association and many committee assignments, she has served as a Director of the California Association of REALTORS® since 1988 and in several positions as Chair and Vice Chair of various committees at the Regional and State level. She continues to serve in several positions locally, and at the regional and state level.

Jolaine can be reached at the Coldwell Banker Palos Verdes-Beach Cities office at 68 Malaga Cove Plaza, Palos Verdes Estates. 310-378-5201 CalRE #00425678
