

EDWARD A BARRIOS
VISTA | SOTHEBY'S INTERNATIONAL REALTY
DIRECTOR, AND PAST PRESIDENT
2019 CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION of REALTORS®, DIRECTOR

As Treasurer for the Palos Verdes Peninsula Association of REALTORS®, my objective will be to help guide and maintain PVPAR's financial soundness, and along with leadership will continue to promote the growth and success of the Association's finances. As an officer and director for the Association I will strive for progress and prosperity for the Association for generations to follow. And As always, I pledging to uphold the standards and integrity on which the association was built and has brought its members success in the real estate practice.

EDWARD'S BIO

Edward began his service with the PVPAR in 2008. Edward currently serves a director for the Palos Verdes Peninsula Association of REALTORS®, the Regional Chairman for Region 21, the Greater South Bay Association of REALTORS®, and servers on the Board of Directors for the California Association of REALTORS®. His past experience includes leadership roles at CAR as Vice-Chairman of the Association President's Leadership Forum and a committee member on the National Association of REALTORS® Consumer Communications Committee, serving in 2016 and 2017.

In 2010 Edward helped to launch the inaugural Young Professional Network for the PVPAR. Getting the PVPAR Young Professional Network started was an important effort for the Association and today it continues to be a strong and growing part of the Association's membership groups. Edward was honored to serve as President of the PVPAR in 2015 and 2016. During his Presidency, Edward continued to push for the initiatives developed in the Strategic Plan for the Association. With the help of the Leadership and Committees, they were able to accomplish many goals including the rebranding campaign for the PVPAR, reintroduction of the Palos Verdes Specialist designation course, the development of the new public relations and marketing plan, and many other initiatives that will help the continued growth and strengthening of the organization.

Edward joined Shorewood Realtors in 2005. He consistently earned recognition for being a top producer, achieving the #1 sales for the Shorewood Realtors Malaga Cove Office - for 7 straight year earning #1 in sales for transactions and #1 volume of business in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 and part of 2016. Edward then joined Vista | Sotheby's International Realty in the summer of 2016 as a Broker Associate.

Edward displays an unmatched work ethic and his peers and clients praise his detail-oriented and candid style while having the ability to be a motivating team player. Edward's ability to see the big picture compels those around him to do the same. In this demanding real estate marketplace, under highly critical situations, Edward successfully navigates and delivers through experience that has been tested and proven.

Edward and his wife Trisha married in 2003. Scott, 11, Shane, 8, and Jane, 5-1/2, currently live in Lunada Bay with their German Shepherd Rigby. Trisha is a finance professional with Canoo, a start-up electric car company in Torrance. Scott and Shane attend Lunada Bay Elementary School and Jane goes to VELA in Valmonte for pre-school. In his spare time Edward surfs the local breaks in the South Bay.
