

EDWARD BARRIOS

VISTA SOTHEBY'S INTERNATIONAL REALTY | BROKER ASSOCIATE
2021 PVPAR PRESIDENT-ELECT, PAST PRESIDENT
2021 CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION of REALTORS®, DIRECTOR

As President of the Palos Verdes Peninsula Association of REALTORS®, my objective will be to promote and support our members and to keep our members interest as the priority. Along with the PVPAR leadership team, I will continue to strive for the Association's growth and success, and will continue to help develop initiatives toward progress and prosperity for the Association. I pledge to uphold the standards and integrity on which the Association was built and has brought the membership success as REALTORS®.

ABOUT EDWARD

Edward began his service with the Palos Verdes Peninsula Association of REALTORS® in 2008 and is the 2021 President-Elect. Edward also volunteers in leadership positions at the state and national level. He is a past Chairman for the California Association of REALTORS® Region 21 and currently on the Strategic Planning and Finance Committee and the Board of Directors for C.A.R. Edward is also currently a member of the Strategic Thinking Advisory Committee and an incoming Director at the National Association of REALTORS®. Other roles he's held include the 2016 Vice-Chairman of the Association President's Leadership Forum for C.A.R. and in 2016 and 2017 he was a member of the N.A.R. Consumer Communications Committee.

In 2010 Edward helped to launch the inaugural Young Professional Network for the PVPAR. Getting the PVPAR Young Professional Network started was an important effort for the Association and today it continues to be a strong and growing part of the Association's membership groups. Edward was honored to serve as President of the PVPAR in 2015 and 2016. During his presidency, Edward continued to push for the initiatives developed in the Strategic Plan for the Association. With the help of the leadership and committees, they were able to accomplish many goals including the rebranding campaign for the PVPAR, reintroduction of the Palos Verdes Specialist designation course, the development of the new public relations and marketing plan, and many other initiatives that will help the continued growth and strengthening of the organization.

Edward has consistently earned recognition for being a top producer, achieving the #1 sales for Shorewood Realtors Malaga Cove Office for 7 consecutive years with #1 in sales for transactions and #1 volume of business in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 and part of 2016. Edward then joined Vista | Sotheby's International Realty in the summer of 2016 as a Broker Associate.

Edward displays an unmatched work ethic and his peers and clients praise his detail-oriented and candid style while having the ability to be a motivating team player. Edward's ability to see the big picture compels those around him to do the same. In this demanding real estate marketplace, under highly critical situations, Edward successfully navigates and delivers through experience that has been tested and proven.

Edward and his wife Trisha married in 2003. Scott, 14, Shane, 11, and Jane, 8, currently live in Lunada Bay with their German Shepherds Rigby and Jonesy. Trisha is a corporate finance professional for Financial Planning and Analysis. Scott, Shane, and Jane attend the local Palos Verdes schools. In his spare time Edward surfs the local breaks in the South Bay.

