

Office Closed to the Public Through April 19th

Following the announcement by Governor Gavin Newsom regarding social distancing, the cities of Rancho Palos Verdes, Palos Verdes Estates, Rolling Hills, Rolling Hills Estates, and PVPUSD and local libraries have announced their closure to the public. While the health and well-being of our staff and members are important to us, the Palos Verdes Peninsula Association of REALTORS® is closing our office to the public through the end of March.

The Association will remain available for business, and our staff will be working remotely to assist you via phone, email, and online services. Please reach out to us, and we will try our best to help you.

PVPAR will continue to monitor events closely & make further announcements as circumstances dictate. We will continue to update you via email, social media, and on our website. Remember to follow us on Facebook and Instagram.
